CLERKS' RAISE FIGHT TAKEN INTO PULPIT

If Congress Increases Own Pay, Why Not Employes' Salaries, Asks Minister.

Members of Congress, feeling the pinch of the high cost of living, raise their own salaries, should they not, in turn, increase those of other persons in the Government service?

This is the question asked by the Rev. D. H. Martin, pastor of the Dumbarton M. E. Church yesterday, in a sermon in which he answered some of the criticisms of Congressman Borland.

Called Them Tax Eaters.

The Missouri Congressman recently characterized the Government employes as "tax eaters," and said the residents of Washington were backing them in their fight for increased wages for mercenary reasons.

The minister said that no government is any better than the persons who operate it. Put low-waged persons in charge, he said, and sooner or later, a cheap government will result.

Must Live Just the Same.

He declared that Congress should remember that Government employes must live just the same as persons in civil life.

He told of private industries which gradually are increasing the salaries of their employes.

Mr. Martin said that it was difficult for him to reconcile the intelligence of Mr. Borland with some of his ideas regarding the pay of Government men and women.

BISHOP HARDING CONFIRMS

Preaches Sermon on "Service" to Class of Thirteen.

Thirteen candidates were confirmed by Bishop Harding at Christ Church, Georgetown, yesterday morning, when he said his annual visit to the parish.

The Rev. James H. W. Blake, rector of Christ Church, presented the candidates and assisted the bishop in the service. Bishop Harding advised the newly confirmed members to read Bible, which he said was the best of all books, and presented each with a small leather bound edition of the Gospel of St. Luke.

In his sermon the bishop chose "Service" for his theme, and pointed to the fact that the Saviour on his last night on earth bathed the feet of each of his disciples.

GREAT PASSIONS DESTRUCTIVE

Great passions undo great men, according to the Rev. George W. Atkinson, pastor of Grace Church, who, in a sermon last night, declared that it is not the strong man with a ruling passion that imposes on the weaker one.

"LOVE THY ENEMIES" TOPIC.

An enemy is largely a creation of one's own consciousness, according to the Rev. Clarence E. Wise, pastor of Iowa Avenue Methodist Church, who preached yesterday on "Love Thy Enemies."

POINTS TO PEACE ROAD.

"Peace is possible only through Christian doctrines. If a small percent of the money now being spent in conducting the European war had been used in saving the soldiers now being physically destroyed, there would have been no war." This view of the Rev. Henry E. Brundage, pastor of the Rockington Presbyterian Church, was expressed in a sermon yesterday.

TELLS OF NAPOLEON'S MISTAKE

"The Mistakes of Napoleon" was the subject of the sermon last night of the Rev. James Gordon, pastor of First Congregational Church, who declared that the greatest error committed by the "Little Corporal" was his refusal to surrender to the will of God.

Of course, the use of dyes to darken hair is unpleasant and not in good taste—even dangerous, in fact. But since the hair color can now be restored to gray or faded hair in a perfectly simple, healthful, natural way, why should anyone have gray hair? Why should you?

Sunshine and air, the good gifts of Nature, combined with the use of Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer, the great gift of science, will bring back the natural color of your hair, evenly and pleasantly, and just as surely as it is true that sunshine and air are free.

Thousands of the foremost people in this country have restored their hair's natural color and air in this way. It is nothing to be ashamed of, like the use of dyes, for does it not restore the hair to its natural color and appearance, as it was when you were young?

All you need to do to gain rich, dark, wavy hair, without a trace of gray, is to wet your hair with Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer, and when it is dry enough expose it to the free sunshine and air, repeating this daily while your hair gradually and evenly returns to its original, uniform color. Q-Ban does not pretend to work miracles overnight, remember. Such claims belong to dangerous dyes, sticky pastes and fakes. Q-Ban's work is safe, permanent, and natural, and keeps the change from making you conspicuous. Your hair will become more glossy, lustrous, soft, abundant, and captivating.

Ironclad Guarantee

Q-Ban is all ready to use. It is not a dye. It is guaranteed to be harmless. A large bottle costs only 50c. It is the only guaranteed preparation for the purpose. Your money back if not satisfied.

Q-Ban is made from a scientific formula of glycerin, avel, alcohol, ethyl, and delicate perfume—the discovery of great chemists. It is endorsed by Prof. Von Huber.

VALUE OF HALF MILE OF SHRUBS SOUGHT

Horticulturists Will Be Asked Worth of Foliage Bordering McLean Estate.

Experts in horticulture and particularly on rare shruberies will be summoned to testify as witnesses in the District Supreme Court tomorrow concerning the value of more than a half mile of beautiful greens which skirt the Wisconsin avenue front of the McLean estate.

The testimony of these experts is to be taken in connection with the condemnation proceedings in progress relative to the widening of Wisconsin avenue to the District line.

Chief Justice J. Harry Covington, who is sitting in the condemnation case, now in its fourth week, notified J. Wilton Lambert, attorney for the McLean estate, today, that the court will set aside tomorrow morning for the hearing of the defendant's side concerning the valuation of the shrubbery and the half mile of stone wall which runs along the limits of the Wisconsin avenue front of the McLean estate, and which the Government seeks to have condemned in order to widen the thoroughfare.

Place Value on Shrubbery.

Attorney Lambert has contended ever since the condemnation proceedings started at that the shrubbery along is worth between $500 and $800. There are three large gates and a fountain in the stone wall, which the McLean attorney states will make the removal of the structure extremely difficult and expensive.

The principal experts to be heard for the defendant to the proceedings this week are Louis D. Weaver, who is on the stand this morning, I. E. Shoemaker and H. L. Rust.

Represent Property Owners.

Other interests and property holders are represented at the hearings by Attorneys Wharton E. Lester, Leon Tobriner, Tucker, Kenyon, and Macfarland, Alexander, Samuel, J. C. Macfarland, C. C. Lancaster, J. J. Darrington, A. L. Lefkowitz, Sinclair, and W. C. Sullivan.

Attorneys interested in the proceedings are of the opinion that another week will be consumed before the condemnations are disposed of. The jury hearing the case was made up of John P. Pool, Isaac Gans, Appleton P. Clark, Ernest Walker, and George W. Ray.
